

Police Chief: $10,000 employment incentive. The City of Wolf Point, Mont., is accepting applications for a full-time Chief of Police. Must be a U.S. citizen; of legal age to perform the duties of this job under MT law; possess or obtain a MT driver's license; hold at least a MT POST Intermediate certification; not have been convicted of a crime for which the person could have been imprisoned in a federal or state penitentiary; no domestic abuse convictions; be of good moral character, as determined by a background investigation. Salary is negotiable based on education and experience. Benefits include retirement in the Municipal Police Officers Retirement System, health insurance paid for employee with family plans available, vacation, sick leave and paid holidays. The City of Wolf Point offers a unique and challenging law enforcement career. Wolf Point is located on the Fort Peck Indian Reservation so multiple jurisdictions are dealt with daily. Wolf Point is located in the heart of northeast Montana and offers some of the best hunting for upland birds, deer, antelope and, if drawn for tags, elk. Fort Peck Dam is 45 minutes west of Wolf Point and is the home to trophy Walleye, Northern Pike, Lake Trout and Small Mouth Bass. For application packet and incentive details, contact city-wlfpt@nemont.net. Closing Date: May 30, 2025.